BORDER SIDE STORY

SUOU YAMATO

Because of his physical ability and great potential, he was assigned to Team W of the English Special Forces. When he met William, the team leader, he was immediately attracted to him. In order to get on the team, he lied about his sexuality, but then William caught him red-handed picking up men at a bar. Somehow they're now in a secret relationship.

WILLIAM LAFETTE

Leader of Team W. When he found out Yamato was picking up men at bars to alleviate the stress of missions, he offered himself up to be Yamato's sex partner. He did it for the sake of Yamato's mental well-being and for the safety of the team, yet his love grows deeper each day and he is unable to hide it.

THE END

This is the side story of "Kachuu no Futari" in Border volume 1 (^∀^) I was thinking about slipping Will x Yamato in between stories in the main book, but as I was drawing it felt like I had digested them instead. They were supposed to be so oblivious to their own feelings that even Sandra Will's ex-wife would have said "I could see the two of you were in your own world," but I wasn't able to due to page limitations. I also thought that if I put too many lovey-dovey scenes within that serious storyline, the whole feeling would change (laugh). So maybe it's better that I do side stories like this instead? (~ ~;)

Recently I've been drawing stuff without sex scenes, so I was having trouble figuring out angles and stuff. I'm really glad I managed to draw it somehow (* ∀ *)
The young Yamato is able to express himself honestly with all that "ahh" and "haa" etc, so it was fun (^∀^) Yamato seems like he'll say "come on" while riding someone... well, he doesn't seem that cute now. And if you're wondering who created a guy like that? Yes, it was me (;¬д¬)

Right now there's still one more Will x Yamato story to be done, so there will be at least one more book.

I'll be very happy if I see you again next time. ♪
